Partnership for Aging

SHOOP SHOOP WITH SWPPA FAQs

What is the event?

The Doo Wop Doctors are playing at a friends and fundraising event for Southwest Pennsylvania Partnership for Aging (SWPPA). The Doo Wop Docs play music from the 50s, 60s, and 70s. Drs. Al Condoluci and John Pastin are often joined by Danielle Pastin on vocals. They offer enjoyable, friendly, and fun music and dancing. It will be a chance for SWPPA members to connect and invite new friends into its work.

How will the proceeds be used?

SWPPA is a coalition of people and organizations from the 10 counties of Southwest Pennsylvania that acts as a catalyst to promote policy, program and systems change that improves quality of life for all people, particularly for our oldest generations. We provide a neutral forum for collaboration, education, networking, and advocacy. The funds raised at this event will help SWPPA carry out that work.

Where is the event?

Millvale Riverfront Park Pavilion located at: 70 River Front Dr, Pittsburgh, PA 15209

Will there be food & drink?

The Pittsburgh Renaissance Theatre membership will be grilling and will have the following items available for purchase: burgers-including veggie burgers, hot dogs or sausage, buns, condiments, and water.

It is also a BYOB event as in bring your own basket or bring you own bottle. Feel free to pack a cooler for the event, as well.

Is there seating?

Under the pavilion, there are traditional picnic tables where you may sit. You may also bring your own chairs if that would be more comfortable for you.

Is there parking?

There is parking near the Pavilion.

Is the site accessible?

Yes, it is. The area is flat. People can be dropped off very close to the pavilion on foot or using a wheelchair. The site has accessible bathrooms and a few accessible parking spaces. Access could drop people off near the Pavilion.
